Saturday, February 7. 1708.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Feb. 10.

Constantinople, December 10.

THE beginning of last Week the Grand Signor with the whole Court return'd hither from Adrianople; since which the Ministers of Great Britain and of Sweden had Audience of the grand Vizier, and the latter of those Ministers is preparing to return to Stockholm. The Envoy's of France and of Prince Ragotski appear seldom at Court than formerly. The Capigi Bathaw, has given Order for the Ships of War and Galleys that were in the Black Sea to be disarm'd and laid up, so that there is no likelihood of a War with the Muscovites. The Sultan has nominated the Beglerbeg of Natolia to be Aga of the Janissaries, in the Room of he Aga who was strangled some Days ago, for what Cause is not known. On Advice that the Sophy of Persia is making great Preparations of War, some Troops are order'd towards the Frontiers on that Side. They write from Bagdat that the great Caravan of Mecca had been attack'd and plunder'd by the Arabs, and that in the Disorder above 4000 Pilgrims lost their Lives. The Mefty has given Direction for about 1500 Buildings of Gallata, which were burnt down by a Fire some Months ago, to be reedified, and that the Jews shall bear the Expence of it. Notwithstanding this Court designs to continue to observe the Peace with the Christians made at Carlowitz. 'tis reported they intend to reestablish the Janissaries and Spahies on the same Foot they were in the Year 1512, in the Time of Selim I.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Feb. 4.

Warsaw, Jan. 7. Letters from Lemberg of the 28th last Month, advise, that the Palatines of Belz and Lublin, the Bishop of Cujavia, the Sword-bearer of the Crown, the Carver, the Ensign-bearer, and the Treasurer of the Court of the Kingdom, had pass'd the Christmas Holidays there, and that the other Senators and Officers were gone to spend those Holidays at their own Seats. The Commissioners appointed to regulate the Winter quarters for the Army of the Crown, had determin'd that both the Royal and Ecclesiastical Lands or Estates should pay the ordinary Contributions for every House; and that those Contributions should be begun to be collected after the Holidays. By Order of the Palatine of Belz, the said Army is to Winter in Podolia and Pokutia. They were in great Want of Provisions at Lemberg, especially of Hay and Oats; because of the unseasonable Weather, which had made the Roads unpassable.

A List of the Regiments of the Army of the Crown of Poland, who on the 2d of November 1707

Paris, Feb. 6. Of the Medals struck here the Beginning of this Year, and which were design'd by the Royal Academy of Medals and Inscriptions, according to annual Custom; one has some Spirit and lucky Thought in its Invention, the rest are but indifferently design'd: It relates to our Navy, and has for its Device Perseus in the Air, holding extended in his Right Hand a Sword, in his Left Medusa's Head;

Head; with this Motto obviously alluding to the last Year's Occurrences by Sea, hinc ferit, inde arret, i. e. here he strikes, there he scares away.
